

Factsheet Attachment

RAWR Publishing Press Release of April 2, 2014

| Key Facts | |
|--------------------|---|
| Title | Duty Bound on the Union Pacific |
| Sub-Title | One Man's Story of Building Lincoln's Transcontinental Railroad |
| ISBN-13 | 978-1493677580 |
| Author | Lawson McDowell |
| Genre: | Historical Fiction |
| Published: | 2014 |
| Publisher: | RAWR Publishing, Omaha, NE |
| Pages | 270 |
| Photographs | 32 |
| Size | 6" x 9" Standard |
| Price | Soft cover - $ 12.99 Ebook - $3.99 |

Title: Duty Bound on the Union Pacific

Sub-Title: One Man's Story of Building Lincoln's Transcontinental Railroad

Website www.Lawson.McDowell.com

Media Kit Visit the press page on author's website. Materials include high resolution photos, interview template, author bio, etc.

Publisher: Virginia Straub, Rawr Publishing Company
P. O. Box 241396, Omaha, NE 68124
Phone: (402)319-9070

Availability Amazon, Kindle, Barnes & Noble, and more.

Factoid: During the construction era, newspapers around the world followed the railroad's construction progress.

Factoid George Train, a Union Pacific promoter and eccentric figure in the book, is said to be the model for Phileas Fogg in Jules Verne's Around the World in Eighty Days.

Factoid The 145th anniversary of the golden spike ceremony will be observed May 10, 2014.

Factoid Union Pacific Railroad is America's largest railroad and one of the nations' most respected companies.

PLEASE FORWARD TO PROPER EDITOR OR REPORTER